HONG KONG, CHINA

Monday, March 16

Although Hong Kong has returned to its original Chinese roots, it still remains a cosmopolitan city with influences, languages, and accents from around the world. Soaring skyscrapers rise from the hills and harbor, blending geography and nature with concrete, steel, and pulsating neon in a way that brings traditional Chinese culture and Western-style commerce into perfect harmony.

SEMINARS-AT-SEA

CRUISING THE EAST CHINA
SEA & COAST OF JAPAN

March 17, 19, 21, 24-25, 29-30

As we cruise the East China Sea and coast of Japan during this sailing, we'll mix and mingle with other Chairman's Circle Members and our distinguished speakers as we explore ways to build and protect our portfolios in 2020 and beyond. We will also enjoy the lavish amenities offered aboard one of the most award-winning ships at sea.

TAIPEI/KEELUNG, TAIWAN

Wednesday, March 18

Taipei, Taiwan's largest city, lies just 20 miles from our pier in Keelung and stands where the Tamsui and Keelung Rivers meet. Since becoming the capital of the Taiwanese Republic of China, its population has grown to three million people, making it one of Asia's fastest growing cities. Explore numerous sites of interest including 19th-century city gates and walls, the Chiang Kai-Shek Memorial Hall, the Sun Yat-sen Memorial, and the famous Grand Hotel.

KAGOSHIMA, JAPAN

Friday, March 20

Kagoshima lies cradled within the protective arms of a large inlet on the island of Kyūshū's extreme southern tip. It is Japan's southernmost city and combines slow-paced charm with thriving commercial activity. World-renowned Mount Sukurajima stands less than three miles away. This busy metropolitan area coexisting with a volcano has led to comparisons between Kagoshima and the Italian city of Naples. Stroll picture-perfect Japanese gardens, explore an abundance of historical sites or shop for traditional pottery.

TOKYO, JAPAN

Sunday-Monday, March 22-23

Fusing the vitality of a modern metropolis with the stately elegance of yesteryear, Tokyo is truly unique. The ageless Imperial Palace bears testament to Japan's enduring traditions. From the timeless beauty of the Meiji Shrine to the glittering Ginza district and impressive Tokyo Tower, this international giant is a complex blend of East and West.

SHANGHAI, CHINA

Thursday-Saturday, March 26-28

Shanghai's skyline is a testament to China's economic might with towering skyscrapers, mega-shopping malls, and the futuristic Oriental Pearl Tower. Its colonial history is preserved in the stately art deco style buildings that line the Bund, the city's famous waterfront promenade. Must-see sights include the Jade Buddha Temple and tranquil Yu Garden, impressive monuments to China's history and style.

HONG KONG, CHINA

Tuesday, March 31

We end our journey in Hong Kong, with great memories and profitable picks for our portfolios.
